Jesus said to his disciples: "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." - Jn 14:26-27a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

Pastor's Notes"Do You Love Jesus?"

Fr. Fred Gatschet

If someone were to come up to us on the street and ask if we believed in God, we could probably answer in the affirmative without much of a second thought. If someone asked us about our faith, we would respond that we are Catholic. So our inquirer then might say, "So you believe and God and say you are a Catholic. Fair enough. Do you love Jesus?" Notice how, for many good church-going folk, the answer to the question "Do you love Jesus?" in the affirmative might not come out with the same conviction as the answer to the question, "Do you believe in God?"

So what do we make of this? St. Peter tells us: "In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls."

St. Peter tells us that even though we have not seen Jesus we love Him, we suffer trials for Him, and believe in Him. Jesus tells the Apostles at the Last Supper, "Whoever loves me will keep my word..." Earlier in Chapter 14, He declares, "Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me." Evidently St. John was paying close attention at the Last Supper for he reminds the readers of his First Letter (2:3-5), "Now by this we may be sure that we know him, if we obey his commandments. Whoever says, 'I have come to know him,' but does not obey his commandments, is a liar, and in such a person the truth does not exist; but whoever obeys his word, truly in this person the love of God has reached perfection" And again in chapter 5:2-3 the Beloved Disciple tells us, "By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome."

So do we love Jesus? The answer to the question is another question: Do we keep His commandments? And what is His Commandment? Do we love one another? And what is this love we have for one another? That we imitate Him in giving ourselves completely to the service of our neighbor beginning in our homes. This is Jesus' own definition of what it means to love Him.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

I often lead group prayer with similar words: "Give us the wisdom to know Your will for our lives and the courage to follow it as we seek to make our community a clearer reflection of the Kingdom of God." The words acknowledge that we need to be about God's will, not our own, and in that journey, we will bear greater witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ.

We talk about how we are called to live a stewardship way of life and that we have been given many good gifts, but it is never truly about us. We are never the main thing. In the same manner, it is never really about our parish. Our combined stewardship may lead to many fruits, like an increased offertory or more vibrancy in parish life. However, it is always about the Kingdom of God and the King, Jesus Christ.

Through our stewardship, we allow our parish community to shine like a city on a hill for others to see and then be drawn toward Jesus Christ. It is about leading people to heaven. Our actions of stewardship do not point toward us but instead to the one who calls us to this life. Our constant prayer needs to be that we always seek to discern God's will and follow it instead of our own. By doing that, we can transform our own lives, our parish communities, and then the world around us.
