Jesus said to his disciples: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day. You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:46, 48

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

St. Joseph Cemetery

maintenance staff will soon be trimming and mowing the cemetery due to the recent blessing of ample rains. Due to Memorial Day, there are a lot of additional items that have been placed on the graves of loved ones. We ask that you remove any floral arrangements or decorations that you wish to keep by Wednesday, June 5th, with the exception of those in containers or vases attached to the monument. Items not picked up which interfere with the mowing and trimming will be removed and disposed of by the cemetery staff. Your cooperation will be appreciated!

Saint Michael the Archangel, Defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking for the ruin of souls. Amen

Pastor's Notes"The Ascension of the Jesus"

Fr. Fred Gatschet

The Feast of the Ascension is bittersweet on a number of levels. First, for me personally, it is sad that the Feast has been transferred to what should be the 7th Sunday of Easter. Some of us are old enough to remember when it was called "Ascension Thursday." St. Luke tells us (Acts 1:3) "After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God." The fortieth day after Easter Sunday lands on a Thursday, so the Ascension of Jesus was always celebrated on Ascension Thursday. As a child going to a Catholic School, we always got Ascension Thursday off, which was great as it was a day off in spring. As Ascension Thursday was a Holy Day of Obligation, my mother would pack us all off to Mass where we would meet my dad. We would go to Mass as a family, Dad would go back to work, and we kids would go home for a play-day.

Then everyone, including our mothers, all took on full time jobs and no one was attending Ascension Thursday Mass anymore. To accommodate this, the American Bishops transferred the Feast to the Seventh Sunday of Easter. Very sad.

Regarding the Ascension of Our Lord, the New Testament presents us with two vignettes of this mystery that taken together give us a full picture. In the Gospel of St. John, we are told that the Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus are part of an integrated whole; that they form one complete action. St. Luke tells us that after the Resurrection, Jesus appeared to His followers over the course of 40 days. So what gives and why does it matter?

It is very simple to understand. Jesus rose and ascended to the Father as one complete and integrated act on Easter Sunday. From His place at the Father's right hand, the glorified Jesus appeared in his glorified resurrected body to the Apostles for the next 40 days. The Ascension that we read about in the Gospels and in the Acts of the Apostles simply marks the end of the post-resurrection appearances of Jesus to His followers. So that is how we understand the two traditions transmitted to us through the New Testament.

Why does it matter to us? Personally I think it is to remind us that Jesus can and does continue appearing to us from His place in heaven, just like He did in those weeks immediately following His Resurrection. We just have either lost or have never developed the eyes to see and recognize Him. Remember after the Resurrection His disciples and Mary Magdalene did not recognize Him. He is present to us in the persons of those in need (Matthew 25:40) and in the Blessed Sacrament. And who knows? Was He in front of you in line at the store or part of the congregation at that last wedding you attended? Pray for the eyes to see Him.

ST. JOSEPH PARISH NEWS

ST JOSEPH OFFICE SUMMER HOURS

Summer hours have begun. The parish office is open Monday - Thursday 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. and Friday 8:00 a.m.—Noon.

HEY, I CAN'T HEAR THE PRIEST'S HOMILY!!!

Are you having problems hearing Father or the readers? St. Joseph offers a hearing unit that can be used at Mass. These units are tied into our PA system and can be checked out right before Mass in the Sacristy. If you try these and feel you want to purchase one for yourself, stop by the parish office for more information. The receivers only work in our church building.

2019 BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

If you have not picked up a baby bottle for this important fund raising event, bottles are available on the table in the vestibule of the church by the main doors. Use the bottle to place all your spare change in and bring it back to the church the weekend of June 23/24 and place them in the baskets by the doors.

RSVPs are needed for the St. Joseph Parish Picnic on Saturday, June 22nd following the 5:00p.m. Mass. Call the parish office next week and give us a head count!

St. Joseph parish office provides a place to bring in all those religious items that you no longer need or want.

Perhaps those items that belonged to your parents that you no longer know what to do with. These items, statues, rosaries, religious reading, candles, scapulars, CD's, etc, are placed in this room to share with others. Those items such as palms and broken items are disposed of in a respectful manner. You may also bring in your old palms!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

I travel a good bit, which means I am away from my wife and children for decent periods of time. But what makes it easier for me, besides being able to share the Good News of Jesus with people all over, is that I know I will not be gone forever. I will return, and then all will be well again. I have been called by God to be away from them at times, but God always brings me back to them.

Each liturgical year, we celebrate Jesus' ascension into heaven. The feast speaks much to who Jesus is theologically. But in a very practical way, we also acknowledge that he has gone to be with the Father, but will return someday. Just as I return after a conference or visit with a parish to those God has entrusted to me and I love, Jesus will return to those entrusted to him and whom he loves.

But just like when I am away, there are things to be done. Life goes on for my wife and children with school, work, activities, and the basic responsibilities of family. In good stewardship, they are called to give generously to each other and devote themselves to God. Without them tending to things, upon my return I would find everything in turmoil and disarray. Then when I return, we become one again, and we are about the Lord's work together.

The Lord ascended into heaven, but we are not to sit by quietly awaiting his return. Much needs to be done. He has entrusted much to us, expecting us to be good stewards. If you think that you have all the time in the world to complete the tasks at hand, think again. His return will be when we least expect it. It is time to be about our Father's work.
